

Bible assignments for the week of March 23-27

MONDAY: The Role of Friends

Assignment- Read the handout. On a sheet of paper or typed answer the following questions:

1. Think of someone you consider a friend. How are you demonstrating Christ in your friendship with this person?
2. How does the misbehavior of your friends affect your reputation? Why should we be cautious in choosing our friends?

TUESDAY: What is Right and Wrong?

Assignment-Read the handout. On a sheet of paper or typed answer the following questions:

1. Should we trust our feelings to tell us what is right and wrong?
2. Where do we learn how to live and love and work?
3. How can you apply James 4:17 (look it up!) to this study?

WEDNESDAY: What is the Meaning of History?

Assignment-Read the handout. On a sheet of paper or typed answer the following questions:

1. Considering the events of today with the Coronavirus how should Christians respond to what is happening around them?
2. How can we show we are Christians during this time?

THURSDAY: What is the Purpose of My Life?

Assignment-Read the handout. On a sheet of paper or typed answer the following questions:

1. How do people "live for themselves"?
2. How should Christians live? Give examples of this in your own life.

FRIDAY: Conclusion

Assignment-Read the handout. On a sheet of paper or typed answer the following questions:

1. What did you learn from this study?
2. Why is it important to define your worldview?